ServiceMaster of Hamilton recognizes the contributions of Lovedeep Singh

September 13, 2024 – While Lovedeep Singh may not have been with ServiceMaster of Hamilton for years, he has quickly shown that his outstanding work ethic is a valuable asset to any employer! Lovedeep is not just an essential employee for us, he is an EVERYDAY HERO for simply being who he is!

As one of our associates for one of our key customers, Amazon, Lovedeep’s work ethic and attention to detail has quickly earned him the reputation of being one of our key team members. We can always rely on Lovedeep to perform his tasks quickly and efficiently as shown in the way he manages shuttle operations, quickly moving full shuttles to the VRCs and maintaining the floor. Lovedeep’s professionalism on the job means that he is always ready to assist to help improve the experience of Amazon associates.

We are certain that we would not be as successful in what we do without Lovedeep on our team!

*“Thank you, Lovedeep, for your continuous commitment and simply just being you!
You are most certainly our EVERYDAY HERO!”*
